Clarke Caton Hintz Announces Creation of New Interior Design Department

TRENTON, NJ, February 20, 2007 – Clarke Caton Hintz is an award-winning architectural, planning and landscape architecture firm with a 30 year track record of providing clients with a broad multi-disciplinary approach keyed to solving today's complex design objectives. We are proud to announce that Marlyn B. Zucosky has joined our firm as Director of Interiors. Ms. Zucosky will be responsible for the newly formed Interior Design department which offers a full range of interior design services.

Most recently a founding partner at Westcott Studio, Ms. Zucosky brings over 20 years of experience designing commercial and residential interiors to the firm. Ms. Zucosky was part of the design team with Clarke Caton Hintz that designed 200 Elm Drive for Princeton University, transforming a Collegiate Gothic boilerhouse into exciting modern office space. Ms. Zucosky has a proven track record of delivering award winning projects both on time and within budget.
